

Spotlight on Community-Based Organizations

Family Health Council of Central PA

Contact Information	3461 Market Street, Suite 200, 717-761-7380 (administrative offices)
Location and regions in PA we serve	Adams, Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Centre, Clinton, Columbia, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lycoming, Mifflin, Montour, Northumberland, Perry, Snyder, Somerset, Union, York Counties
Populations we serve	People receiving services in these counties who experience barriers to care and/or health disparities. These barriers may be related to income, insurance status, immigration status, language/culture, geography, or transportation.
Services we provide	Title X-funded Family Planning; WIC; Breastfeeding Peer Counseling; SNAP Outreach and Enrollment; Adolescent Health Education; Breast and Cervical Cancer Screening and Services Navigation; Opioid Housing and Care (Dauphin County only); OUD/ Family Planning Integration Services; HIV Care and Housing Services.
Services we provide that are related to maternal health	Family Planning; OUD and Family Planning Integration Services; Breastfeeding Peer Counseling
How to make a referral to us	It depends on the program; please see informational sheet for referral phone numbers
Current referral partnerships	FHCCP's program have extensive referral networks in the communities they serve. The organization is always open to new partnerships.
Once the referral is made, what are the mechanisms and processes for follow up and ongoing communication?	These processes vary by program and provider; medical sites follow clinical protocols to ensure follow-up care is completed.
Eligibility Requirements	Eligibility for services is based in requirements for each individual program. Details are on FHCCP informational sheet.

The Foundation for Delaware County

Contact Information	Katie Kenyon, Community Engagement Director kkenyon@delcofoundation.org 610.497.7346
Location and regions in PA we serve	Delaware County, PA
Populations we serve	Pregnant women, families with children under the age of 2 (Healthy Start, WIC, Cribs for Kids, Nurse-Family Partnership, Center for Hispanic Resources) Spanish-speaking families (Center for Hispanic Resources) High School students (Health Resource Center at Chester High School) Families with young children with a medical need (WIC)
Services we provide	Telephonic and Intensive Case Management, Nutritional Counseling, Home Visiting (Nurses and Case Managers), Information and Referral, Legal Services (Medical-Legal Partnership), Parenting Education, Social Work Services, In-home Therapy (Moving Beyond Depression), Bilingual Services, Health Education, Breastfeeding Support, Support Groups, Prenatal Yoga, Family Dinners, Parent Cafes.
Services we provide that are related to maternal health	All services are related to maternal, paternal, child and family health.
How to make a referral to us	Referral Form Online Referral: www.delcofoundation.org By Phone Self-referrals accepted
Current referral partnerships	ChesPenn Health Services Crozer Pediatrics OB Practices Chester Housing Authority
Once the referral is made, what are the mechanisms and processes for follow up and ongoing communication?	Providers are welcome to follow up on referrals. Program participants and other providers must sign release of information forms in order for exchange of interagency/intersystem information after enrollment.
Eligibility Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Healthy Start (federally funded) – geographic eligibility, Chester and the surrounding 8 municipalities • Healthy Start (Keystone First funded) – Keystone First Members throughout the county • Nurse-Family Partnership – low-income, first-time mothers, enrolled by 28 weeks, serves whole county • WIC – low/moderate income families, pregnant, post-partum, breastfeeding or nutritional need in child, serves whole county

Maternity Care Coalition

Contact Information	215-972-0700, maternitycarecoalition.org
Location and regions in PA we serve	Philadelphia and the surrounding counties in Southeastern PA
Populations we serve	Pregnant and parenting families with children 0-3 years old
Services we provide	Our MOMobile services are community based home visiting that programs case management, support, and education to pregnant and parenting families. Our Early Head Start program provides center and home based early care and education for pregnant women and families with children 0-3.
Services we provide that are related to maternal health	Comprehensive community based support, case management and education for pregnant and parenting women.
How to make a referral to us	Call 215-972-0700 or visit our website to learn about specific programs/contact info: maternitycarecoalition.org
Current referral partnerships	Some (not exhaustive list) referral partnerships include: Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, Temple University Hospital, Jefferson Hospital, Keystone First, Health Partners Plans, The City of Philadelphia's NAS program
Once the referral is made, what are the mechanisms and processes for follow up and ongoing communication?	Once a generic referral is made, the referral is directed to the appropriate program. Referral follow up and assignment varies based on specific program procedures.
Eligibility Requirements	MCC currently has 22 different maternal child health programs. Eligibility is based on specific program.

Opioid Use Disorder Center of Excellence at Reading Hospital

Contact Information	Valerie Chandler 484-628-5790
Location and regions in PA we serve	Berks County, Pa
Populations we serve	Age 18 and older Opioid abusing and addicted individuals
Services we provide	Care Coordination
Services we provide that are related to maternal health	Care Coordination
How to make a referral to us	Phone: 484-628-5790, Fax 484-628-5776, email Valerie.chandler@towerhealth.org
Current referral partnerships	Woman's Health Center, Reading Hospital. We will work with any OBGYN the patient is seeing
Once the referral is made, what are the processes for follow up and ongoing communication?	If the patient is at the WHC our assigned care coordinator follows them at the OB appointments when possible. We can meet with the woman at any location she is comfortable with. We obtain releases for the practices/program the mother is involved with.
Eligibility Requirements	Must be 18 or older, Berks County Resident, voluntarily agree to participate, Opioid abusing or addicted, male or female.